

(TN: appears to begin in mid-sentence)

(5) ...of your promise with me and send the consent as soon as possible, my dear shaykh. Oh my, my health has declined quite a bit due to the successive wounds, the most recent six months ago. Praise God, God will grant me this as a badge on the Day of Resurrection. I ask him to accept me and you and all Muslims. I pray for us and you to be kept from Satan and man and the demons. May he protect you and the doctor with his safekeeping, which neither man nor demons can take away from us.

Your poor younger brother, at the mercy of his Lord.
