In the name of God, the Compassionate the Merciful

To my precious daughter, ((Umm-Mu'adh))

Peace, mercy, and blessings of God be upon you

How are you and what is your news? By God, I miss you so much. Yes, I miss my pious daughter. May God bless you and reward you for all that you have done for me. May God also reward your parents for their good upbringing of you, and make heaven their final destination. I yearn much for the beautiful days I spent with you, especially during travel. Indeed, you were the best companion. May God bless you. How is Sa'd doing? How far is he in studying the Qur'an and does he study other subjects? Make sure you and his father take good care of him, as he has great capabilities. At least teach him the basic principles of reading, writing, and mathematics and read to him the Prophet's biography and the stories of the Prophets. What is his latest funny news? And how is his sister Khawlah? I wish I could hear her talking. As I had indicated in my second letter, everyone misses you and hopes to see you. May God get us together soon. It is preferable to travel light by reducing what you carry as much as possible; only carry what is essential. We are well, praise be to God. The only thing we're lacking is getting together with you. Please forgive me if I made you mad - and perhaps for having done so frequently. If the security conditions permit, please extend my regards to the people with whom you are staying. I apologize for this brief letter, because the power keeps going on and off. Take care of yourself and give my greetings to Abu-Mu'adh, Sa'd, and Khawlah. Give them this message from my grandmother: "I miss you very much. May God unite us soon. Listen to and obey your mother and father and do not anger them." Do not forget us in your prayers, especially for martyrdom. Congratulations on the departure of the tyrants who have oppressed the nation for a long time and God willing the rest of them will also go. Peace and God's mercy and blessings be upon you.
